Rhee Pledges Grievances Will Be Heard

By GENE KRAMER

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—President Syngman Rhee today pledged a redress of grievances as his soldiers smashed the last of the riotous resistance which brought this capital to the edge of revolution. New demonstrations were reported in other cities.

Steadily rebuffed by the United States for his government's "repressive measures" unsuited to a free democracy, the 85-year-old President said: "The government will devote maximum energy to the investigation of these disturbances. Those who are guilty can be assured of punishment. Those with major grievances can be certain of redress."

Gen. Song Yo-Chan, in charge of the emergency martial law clamped upon five cities Tuesday, said the last major groups of demonstrators had been broken up and their leaders arrested. The rioting over the past two days in Seoul, climaxed by a surging march on president's mansion, left a confirmed total of 92 dead and more than 500 wounded or injured, 50 of them critically.

The death toll was expected to climb. This capital looked as if it had been through a wartime battle. Weeping crowds gathered outside hospitals. Bodies were returned to bereaved families. A government consolation payment of 500,000 yen—$750—was proclaimed for the bereaved.

Rhee's statement, his first in five days of anti government demonstrations which burgeoned into Tuesday's wild violence, made no mention of U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter's assertion that the uprisings reflected "Popular dissatisfaction over the conduct of the recent election."

An uneasy calm settled over the capital while Rhee's Cabinet met on this most grave crisis since Korea became a republic 12 years ago.

While troops stood guard at major government buildings, police kept up operations against scattered bands of demonstrators roaming the outskirts of Seoul. Scattered gunfire also continued through the night, and shortly after dawn police shot and killed three members of an armed group defying the curfew.

New demonstrations were reported in Taegu, Kwangju, Conju, Suwon, Iri and Incheon, but no casualties were reported. Both

Davis Wins Handily in Louisiana

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sen. Clifford P. Case (R-NJ) easily weathered a conservative challenge to his renomination and palled-singing Jimmie Davis won the Louisiana governorship handily in Tuesday's elections.

Case will face Democrat Thorn Lord, Mercer County (Trenton) Democratic chairman in New Jersey's Senate election in November.

Case's margin of victory over Robert Morris, former chief counsel for the Senate Internal Security subcommittee, surpassed 100,000 votes. But Morris declined to say if he would support Case in the November election, despite a plea for unity from Sen. Thurston B. Morton (R-Ky), the Republican national chairman.

"We fought this campaign on principles," Morris said after conceding defeat. "We lost. We're going to keep on fighting for the same principles."

It was Morris' second unsuccessful attempt to win a New Jersey Republican senatorial nomination. He finished third in a three-way race in 1958 but got strong conservative backing in his campaign against Case.

Lord, as expected, won a lopsided victory over Richard M. Glassner, a Newark, N.J., attorney seeking election to his first public office.

In Louisiana, Davis smothered three opponents including Republican Francis Grevenberg. He will succeed Earl K. Long as governor.

Although Grevenberg made the best showing for a Republican in years in Louisiana, he was outpolled by Davis by a better than 4 to 1 margin. States' Rights leader Earl Courtney, a New Orleans publisher, and write-in candidate Maurice W. M. E. Clark, a poet-philosopher from New Orleans, ran far behind.

Davis was governor between 1944 and 1948. Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) accepted a challenge for a face-to-face debate with Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn). Both are entered in West Virginia's May presidential preferential primary.

Humphrey expressed delight that Kennedy has accepted the challenge.

Bowden Is Mentally Ill, Doctors Say

Prosecuting Attorney Royce Weisenberger said Wednesday that Jerry Bowden, 27, has been found mentally ill at the State Hospital, where he was committed after his mother was shot fatally.

The mother, Mrs. J. C. Bowden, 47, was shot four times at her farm home near Hope April 9, and died at a hospital three days later.

Bowden was arrested and sent to the State Hospital for a mental examination on the day of the shooting. His father was wounded in the ear.

No motive was revealed for the shooting of Mrs. Bowden. Police said the shots were fired during an argument between father and son.

Weisenberger said the younger Bowden would remain at the State Hospital and a court would order permanent commitment.

Mitchell Is Named Head Cage Coach

Billy Mitchell, junior basketball coach, has been advanced to head basketball coach, it was announced today by Supt. James Jones, following a meeting of the Board last night. Don Sevier resigned the job this week.

Mitchell coached the Hope Juniors to an undefeated season in district play last year and prior to that he coached at Spring Hill. He will also teach mathematics.

In other action the Board dropped the driver education program for the coming year.

Negro Residence Burns on Laurel

A Negro residence on North Laurel caught fire and burned late yesterday afternoon. Pearl Bird lived in the house which was gutted inside by the blaze. Firemen said the origin of the fire could not be determined and the house was burning furiously by the time they arrived.

The pistol was so near Hunt that powder got in his eyes. He went to a hospital to have his eyes washed. The eyes were not injured.

Says South Should Unite Politically

MEMPHIS, (AP)—The governor of Mississippi says the South should unite politically in an effort to control the next presidential election.

Gov. Ross Barnett, in an anti-integration talk before the Rotary club yesterday, urged support of the "independent electors plan," which aims at throwing the election into the House of Representatives.

Under the plan, all Southern electors chosen in the November election would be pledged to any candidate and could withhold their votes in the electoral college.

If neither major party could gain a majority in the college, the house would name a president. In the House, said Barnett, the South could force a compromise.

"But even if this were not the case, the proposal is still sound on a moral basis," Barnett added. "Friends, I am going to vote my convictions this November. The way I look at it, if we vote for integration how can we expect anything else?"

Prowler Fires at Officer But Misses

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—A prowler fired point-blank at a detective early today, but the policeman escaped with a hole in his new hat and smacking eyes.

A few hours later another policeman suffered a scratched cheek when a bullet, apparently fired by the same man, crashed through his automobile windshield.

Both officers emptied shotguns at the prowler, who apparently got away uninjured.

Detective Kenneth Hunt got out of his unmarked automobile about 1 a.m. after he saw a man lurking near a business building on West Grand Avenue.

Hunt said that as he rounded a corner of the building, the white prowler fired a pistol from a few feet, then ran up an embankment, scampered over a fence and disappeared into the woods.

Hunt fired both barrels of his shotgun at the fleeing man but missed.

Group Refuses to Cut Military Aid Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee refused today to cut 200 million dollars in military assistance funds from President Eisenhower's $4,175,000,000 foreign aid program.

Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont), leaving a closed-door meeting, told newsmen that Sen. Frank Church (D-Idaho) had sought unsuccessfully to put a $1,000,000,000 ceiling on the amount the President could spend for military assistance abroad for the fiscal year starting July 1. Eisenhower is asking 2 billions for this type of aid.

The committee was to meet again this afternoon in an effort to conclude work on the foreign aid authorization bill.

It acted as the House began debate, meantime, on its own version of a foreign aid measure with a $4,038,500,000 ceiling.

'Misquoted' Truman Tells Students

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman said today he was misquoted concerning Negro sit-down demonstrations at Southern lunch counters. Reporters insisted they quoted him correctly.

Truman was asked at a news conference at Cornell University on Monday whether he thought the demonstrations were Communist-inspired. He was quoted as replying: "I wouldn't be surprised."

Negro leaders, protesting the statement, denied any Communist connection with the movement.

"I was misquoted and I have no further comment," Truman told newsmen during his daily stroll this morning.

Two reporters who attended the Cornell conference insisted their reports were correct and were written only after they had listened to tape recordings of the conference.

The reporters are Harold Jansent of the Ithaca Journal and Eleanor Billmyer of the Syracuse Post-Standard.

The Associated Press story of the conference was based on information supplied by the Ithaca Journal.

Truman declined, in response to a query after his stroll, to make any further comment.

Cites Change Needed in Cities, Towns

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A committee investigating municipal government in Arkansas says some changes are needed to help cities and towns cope with growing populations.

The Business Executives Research Committee, in a report yesterday to the Arkansas State Chamber of Commerce Executive Board, said, "One of the facts of life in urban Arkansas is that, for the most part, low-quality municipal services are provided the city-dweller."

The report said tax restrictions, inflation, declining assessment ratios, lack of planning and constitutional limitations hamper cities in meeting increasing urban challenges.

Severe Weather Warning Issued

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The U.S. Weather Bureau at Little Rock issued the following severe thunderstorm forecast today:

"Present indications are that thunderstorms will develop in southeastern Kansas and eastern Oklahoma this afternoon and move on, producing a few severe thunderstorms with large hail and damaging surface winds during the period 2 p.m. to 8 p.m. today, in an area along and 60 miles to the north and south of a line from 30 miles south of Tulsa, Okla. to 60 miles northeast of Springfield, Mo."

"Counties in Arkansas affected are Benton, and portions of Washington, Madison, Carroll and Boone."

Shot, Robbed of $25,000 Man Claims

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Buck Layne, a Cleveland County cattleman and liquor store owner reported yesterday that he was shot and robbed of $25,000 Monday night.

Layne, about 50, was hospitalized with two gunshot wounds in the shoulder.

Deputy Sheriff Buck Oliver said two motorists, Delton Nealey and Howard Owen of Pine Bluff, pulled Layne from his burning car on Highway 79 about 10 miles south of here. Layne was not harmed.

Layne said he parked his car on Highway 79 while he went to Little Rock to sell $10,000 worth of cattle. After the sale, he returned to his car, but it quit running about a half mile from where he had parked it.

When he stopped to investigate, Layne said, another car approached and two shots were fired, striking him. Layne returned the fire with his own gun. Then he said, he was knocked unconscious and "the next thing I knew I woke up in a wall of flame."

Layne told officers he had the $16,000 cattle money and another $9,000, all in cash.

Cancer Film to Be Shown Here April 28

A campaign urging the women of Hope and in fact all women of Hempstead County to have a cell examination for uterine cancer was launched here today by the local Unit of the American Cancer Society, it was announced by Mrs. Jimmy Cook, president of the unit.

Medical authorities believe the examination can virtually eliminate uterine cancer as a cause of death among women. In announcing this campaign, Mrs. Cook described the development of the cell examination for uterine cancer as one of the most important scientific advances ever made in the fight to control cancer.

The examination is based on research pioneered by Dr. George Papanicolaou of Cornell University. The examination is simple and painless and doctors can make the test in their offices.

The society's new film "Time and Two Women" is to be brought here to be shown free of charge at the Saenger Theatre, at 2 p.m. Thursday, April 28. This is the film that explains this simple detection method for uterine cancer.

Hardin Backed by Integrationists, Faubus Charges

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus charged today that a group of "hard core integrationists" seeks a candidate to oppose his bid for a fourth term.

Faubus told a news conference this group held a meeting here yesterday and that the candidate it now prefers is Joe Hardin of Grady, former president of the Arkansas Farm Bureau Federation.

Hardin said later that the Faubus statement was a "sample of the unfair tactics he intends to employ in the campaign."

"In my 30 years in public life and business in this state, I have had a reputation of not being 'put in' or 'put out' of anything by any group."

"If I decide to run, it will be because I think I can make the people of Arkansas a better government than Mr. Faubus."

He said he still hadn't reached a firm decision.

"This group can raise more money for a campaign than I can," Faubus said.

"It also has been assured by Washington interests that expenses of the right candidate will be underwritten."

The governor declined to identify members of the local group or the Washington interests.

Faubus said the Arkansas group had encouraged both Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett and Dr. H.E. Williams, president of Southern Baptist College at Walnut Ridge, to enter the gubernatorial race.

"But neither of these men will get support from this group if it can find the candidate it wants," Faubus said.

Bennett is the only candidate besides Faubus so far.

Williams has said he will file Friday.

Faubus said the opposition group — made up both Little Rock residents and persons elsewhere in the state — met with Hardin yesterday to discuss his candidacy.

Plane Crash in Colombia Leaves 32 Dead

BOGOTAN, Colombia (AP) — Thirty-two persons were killed and 20 survived the crash of a Colombian airliner at Bogota's new international airport Tuesday night.

The Lloyd Aereo Colombiano C-46, arriving from Miami, crashed as it was preparing to land in a fog.

On its approach to the main runway, the plane hit a 15-foot mound of dirt, split in two, caught fire, and fell into a lake near the airfield.

Will Report Tests Talks in Closed Meet

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ambassador James J. Wadsworth agreed today to meet with the Senate House Atomic Energy Committee in closed session to report on the Geneva nuclear test ban negotiations.

Rep. Chet Holifield (D-Calif.), presiding at committee hearings on problems involved in any test ban, announced Wadsworth had accepted an invitation to appear.

Holifield said the session would be secret because of the delicate stage of the Geneva talks.

Sen. Albert M. Gore (D-Tenn), who asked that Wadsworth be invited, told a reporter he was agreeable to a closed session although he would have preferred it to be public.

Gore accused Wadsworth of joining with the Soviet delegation last month in a joint statement which "misled the American people" into thinking the Soviets had fully accepted U. S. test ban proposals.

The ambassador arrived Tuesday from Geneva for a brief period of consultations here.

State C of C Group Will Visit Hope

A group of Arkansas State Chamber of Commerce officials, headed by President Marvin Melton will be in Hope Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock at the City Hall for a meeting with county and city officials, county and HD agents, 4-H Club leaders, garden clubs and civic leaders from an 8 county area.

Purpose of the meeting is to explain the All-Arkansas clean up drive to be conducted during the month of May. The prime target of the State Chamber in this drive is to rid the state of dilapidated and unoccupied shacks along the highways. These buildings are an "eyesore" to tourists and visitors driving through the state.

"The success of this program depends on the efforts of all of us and we urge all interested citizens to be present," said Fred Ellis, president of the local C of C.

Johnson left yesterday for Los Angeles, where he is to speak Friday night to a meeting of the Defenders of State Sovereignty, a group backing a "Faubus for President" campaign.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus withdrew from a scheduled address to the group.

staunch segregationist like Johnson, Faubus said, "this political situation was created some of the damnedest alliances I've never seen anything like it."

Faubus said he did not know anybody who attended yesterday's meeting but he had been given the names of the most prominent participants.

"This group with its connections can, if it chooses, finance a candidiate on an extensive and ample scale," Faubus said.

The governor said the figure mentioned to put a "hatchet man" in the race was $25,000.
He did not mention what figure,
if any, was discussed in connection with Hardin's possible candidacy.

Hardin, who operates a farm near Grady and has commercial interests, was a target of Faubus' criticism last year when he joined a group which ousted pro-Faubus members of the Little Rock School Board.

Hardin then was a board member of the Arkansas Louisiana Gas
Co. he has since resigned.

He is a former state revenue commissioner and served two terms in the Legislature in the 1930s.

The Arkansas Democrat today said that Hardin reportedly conferred here yesterday with Sen.
J. William Fulbright.

Neither Fulbright nor Hardin could be reached for comment.
Faubus is considered a probable candidate against Fulbright in 1962, especially if the governor gets a fourth term in his present office.

The Democrat also said there was speculation that gubernatorial candidates might include former Rep. Boyd Tackett of Texarkana, who tried for the office in 1952,
and Jimmy Driftwood of Trumbol, a popular singer.

The name of Tackett had been mentioned previously.

Taegu and Kwangju are under martial law.

The demonstrators are demanding nullification of the March 15 presidential election, in which Rhee won a fourth term and his running mate, Li Kiang-pao, defeated vice president John M.
Chang, both by overwhelming votes. The demonstrators charge that Rhee's Liberal party rigged the elections and also accuse the police of brutality against election day demonstrators.

SEOUL, South Korea. (AP)—
President Syngman Rhee pledged today that as soon as law and order are restored in riot-torn South Korea, "those with major grievances can be certain of redress."

Rhee said he and his government were shocked by the violence of the demonstrations that rocked his 12-year-old republic Tuesday and brought death to at least 92 persons.

But in his first statement on the national crisis, the 85-year-old President emphasized that until the "necessity for martial law no longer exists," it is "not the time to discuss causes or to attempt the fixing of blame."

The riots in Seoul were a culmination of nine days of demonstrations in other South Korean cities demanding nullification of the March 15 presidential election, in which Rhee won a fourth term.
The demonstrators charged Rhee's Liberal party with rigging the election and the police with brutality to anti-government demonstrators.

Rhee's statement was issued shortly after the government announced that 92 persons were killed in the bloody uprising in Seoul Tuesday. Shooting continued through the night as police continued operations against several hundred anti-government demonstrators who continued to roam the streets of northeast Seoul in defiance of a curfew.

Martial law was declared in Seoul and four other cities placing the nation's major centers under army control. So far the troops have confined their activity to standing guard at government buildings, leaving the major work of restoring order to the police.

Rebels Sieze Venezuela Army Unit

By ARISTEDES MOLEÓN

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)— Rebels seized control of an army regiment's headquarters at San Cristobal near the Colombian border today in an attempt to set off nationwide revolt against President Romulo Betancourt's government.

Belancourt ordered soldiers to San Cristobal to quell the uprising, and pledges of support came to him at once from military, political and civilian sources.

The moderate Venezuelan President announced he would use all constitutional powers to crush the rebellion, but would not suspend constitutional guarantees in this oil-rich nation.

The strong military garrison at Caracas announced its support at once for Betancourt's government.

Leaders of the nation's three major political parties spoke over a national radio network, appealing to their followers in San Criostobal to vigorously oppose the insurrection.

The rebels seized control of the Simon Bolivar army regiment's headquarters at San Cristobal.

Gen. Pedro Jose Quevedo, commander of the Venezuelan armed forces, urged "my companions in arms to set an example of common sense and maturity" and support the constitutional government.

The head of the Central Workers Organization, Jose Gonzalez Navarro, called for its 1,200,000 members to go on strike. He said this would be a demonstration of opposition to the "criminal" insurrection which, he declared, was counting on the support of the Dominican Republic.

The government had announced last Saturday that it had smashed a plot for an armed invasion of Venezuela from Colombia by officers who were dismissed from the army for their support of former dictator Gen. Marcos Perez Jimenez.

Venezuelan naval craft and air force planes were patrolling the coast today on the lookout for two fishing boats which the minister of defense, General Jose Lopez Henrique, said had sailed from Spain with arms for the plotters.
Betancourt, a moderate with a reputation as a social reformer, risings, threats and harassments since he took office early in 1959.

He was elected a year after the

ment.

He called for the immediate buildup to a force of 50 C133 jet cargo planes and the long-range procurement of 2882 more modern cargo planes not yet in produchas only 31 C133s. These are the only planes in the MATS fleet capable of doing the job required, he said.

Unable to Meet Demand of Airlift

WASHINGTON (AP)—The head

Service said today it is unable to

- Why is the rate for six days not twice the cost of the same ad for three days?
- Is there any advantage in running a display ad as compared to a word ad?
- Are classified word ads effective?

ANSWERS

- A 1 column x 3 inch classified ad costs $5.85 for three days. $9.90 for six days.
- You save $1.80 by running the ad six days because the rate is lower on a six day basis.
- Yes, there is an advantage in running a display ad. It is more easily read and catches the reader's attention at once.
- Yes, classified word ads are effective. This is the most used method of advertising apartments and houses for rent. Word ads can be used in almost all types of businesses.
- Approximately 14,000 people read the classified page every day. In a week one ad will have been read 84,000 times.

Cites Hospitals in Federal Aid

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Federal aid does not mean federal domination, Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) said yesterday at the dedication of a new five million dollar Jefferson County Hospital.

Fulbright said the Hill-Burton hospital aid act, which helped build the Jefferson County building, refutes the argument "that any participation by the federal government will lead inevitably to federal control."

The act provides matching funds, on a need basis, to help communities build hospital facilities.

Fulbright also defended federal aid to education.
The dedication was in conjunction with the 84th annual meeting of the Arkansas Medical Society, which ends today.

DOROTHY DIX Fears Truth Will Break Her Daddy's Heart

Dear Dorothy Dix:
I am 16, an only child and always had good grades in school. Mom seems rather hard on me. It's been Dad who talked to me about how to behave with boys. He is a worrier. Although I try to get home from parties by 12:00, I know he's had sleepless nights because I hear him making coffee.

I let a boy go too far. He told me his people will not allow this to spoil his education and will not answer my calls. He goes to university next year.
How can I tell my folks? It will just about break Dad's heart. He always said, "Play it clean, honey, for your sake and ours."

Miserable
Dear Miserable: You poor child! My heart goes out to you. But don't despair. There is a woman, Mrs. Virginia Lee Bennett, who devotes her life to quietly helping girls in your plight. Her address is c/o The Children's Service Society, 576 East South Temple Street, Salt Lake City, Utah. Write her!

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I have three girls between seven and 19. Because of the difference in ages, it is hard to treat them all alike. The eldest works and goes steady with a boy a year older than she is. They talk about getting married. I tell them it is better to wait till next summer. By that time they will have money ahead. They did not say anything but I found a note and in it a lot of things about me—bad things against the future mother-in-law. I advised only in the hope of making their lives happier. Was I wrong. As a widow, I know how it is to manage with a small salary. I don't want the kids to go through life as I did—Old-Fashioned.

Dear Old-Fashioned: The concern over your daughter's future happiness is understandable. But in the last analysis, she must decide for herself. The boy friend's criticism of you makes me doubt the wisdom of her choice. However, you never should have read his letter. Even though you did so in the spirit of helpfulness, it was unethical to say the least.
There comes a time in the lives of parents when they must release their children. That time has come for you. Keep your advice to yourself unless asked for and then administer it with tolerance, if you want to retain

Diet Used by Science in Heart Disease

By ROBERT GOLDENSTEIN, Associated Press Science Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—A researcher seeking a new approach to combat heart attacks presented a method today that increases an animal's ability to handle diets excessively high in fats and cholesterol.
Control of fat metabolism is of tremendous importance to medical science because many investigators believe that heart artery disease stems from the inability of some human systems to properly digest and utilize animal fats and cholesterol.

The new procedure, involving an injection of an extract of common yeast into the veins of an experimental animal, was presented by Dr. N. R. Diluzio, associate professor of physiology at the University of Tennessee medical units.

versity of Tennessee medical units.

Cholesterol, a fatty substance implicated in hardening of the arteries, normally is removed from the body by the liver. The liver also is the major site of fat metabolism. The particular liver cells which accomplish these tasks have not yet been defined.

Dr. Diluzio told the Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology that the yeast extract stimulated one particular type of cells known as the RE cells.

The system involved is the reticulo-endothelial, a group of cells which serve various functions including defending the body against infection.

These RE cells are found especially in the liver but also in the spleen, lungs, lymph nodes, bone marrow and other body organs.
The injection, he said, stimulated a sharp increase in RE cell number, size and function. Other liver cells, he added, were unaffected.

The injection produced within two weeks a two-to four-fold increase in the weight of the spleen and lungs and a 50 per cent increase in liver weight.

The treated animals and another group of untreated animals were maintained on a high fat and cholesterol diet which had been demonstrated previously to produce heart attacks.

The untreated animals showed excessive liver and blood fats. The accumulation of various fats in the liver and blood was considerably lower in the injected group.

The next steps will be to carry the experiment on to determine whether spontaneous heart attacks actually are prevented in the animals and to modify the yeast extract for studies at the clinical level.

It is estimated that 7,000 acres of strawberries will be harvested in Arkansas this year, considerably less than the 10 year average of 10,300 acres.

Dodgers Tame Giants, Take Over 1st Place

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The world champion Los Angeles Dodgers are not alone in first place after their first run-in with the San Francisco Giants, but the guys with the smiles in the National League are the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Cardinals won 4-3, the Dodgers 3-2, in their first five regular season games. But Tuesday night, with injured Joe Cunningham back and Stan Musial slugging a two-run double, the Cards broke through for a 5-2 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

The Dodgers topped the Giants out of a share of the lead with a 4-0 decision at San Francisco as Johnny Podres and Ed Roebuck combined for a five-hit shutout. And the Philadelphia Phillies won their first under new Manager Gene Mauch, beating Pittsburgh 4-3 behind Jim Owen's three-hitter in the only other game scheduled.

The American League completed its late opening as the Chicago White Sox out-slugged Kansas City 10-9 on a pair of homers by Minnie Minoso. Detroit beat Cleveland 4-2 in 15 innings although Rocky Colavito was hitless. New York smacked Boston 8-4 and Baltimore defeated Washington 3-2.

Southpaw Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell, battered in his first start a week ago in a 6-1 loss to the Giants, struck out 10 and gave up seven hits while becoming the Cards' first winner. He needed Lindy McDaniel's relief help in the ninth, but had a three-run lead after Bill White hit his first home run of the year in the eighth.

Los Angeles got the run it needed in the second on Carl Furillo's triple and a sacrifice fly by rookie Tommy Davis against Billy O'Dell (0-2), a loser in his first NL start. The Dodgers added three more in the ninth against Billy Loes and Stu Miller on John Roseboro's two-run triple and two of the Giants' five errors.

Owens, slapped with a $600 fine for playing too hard off the field during spring training, was all business in his first appearance for the Phils. An error, Dick Groat's single and Bob Skinner's home run gave the Bucs their three in the third. The only other hit Owens allowed was Bob Clemente's single in the sixth. The young right-hander walked but two, struck out nine for his first major league three-hitter.

Homers Fail to Win for Porks

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Darrell Williams and Pat Foster hit home runs in vain as Arkansas lost a baseball game 9-5 to Loyola of the South yesterday.

Williams hit a three-run homer in the fourth and Foster smacked a two-run clout in the sixth. Kenny Adolph blasted a solo homer for Loyola in the fourth.

Way Cleared for Rights Legislation

WASHINGTON (AP)—The way was cleared today for final congressional action on civil rights legislation.

The House Rules Committee voted 8-4 to send to the House a resolution accepting Senate changes in the House bill.

Adoption of this resolution generally expected in view of previous civil rights votes in the House, would send the legislation to President Eisenhower.

Chairman Howard W. Smith (D-Va.) told reporters he expected the bill to be completed Thursday.

Smith has been a leader of the Southern opposition to new civil rights legislation.

Inning by John Carretta and a two-run homer in the seventh by Jerry McNamara.

Ike Visiting Korea Brings a Dispute

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee proposed today President Eisenhower reconsider his plan to visit Korea as a further protest against "repressive measures" of Syngman Rhee government.

A third, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.), disagreed.

"I think it is a good time for the President to speak up, on the spot, for the political rights of the Korean people, and I hope he will do so," Humphrey said.

There has been no indication of a change in Eisenhower's plans to visit Korea June 22 near the end of his scheduled trip to the Soviet Union and Japan.

Sens. George D. Aiken (R-Vt.) and Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.) joined Humphrey in applauding Tuesday's action by Secretary of State Christian A. Herter in charging the South Korean government with adopting "repressive measures unsuited to a free democracy."

Summoning ambassador Youn Chai Yang to his office, Herter called on the Rhee government to take necessary and effective action to protect democratic rights, including freedom of speech, assembly and the press and bring an end to "unfair discrimination against political opponents."

Herter expressed "profound and growing concern of this government over the serious, continuing public unrest and acts of violence in Korea."

Aiken told a reporter the President ought to take a "second look" at his scheduled itinerary for the Far East, which includes the stop in South Korea.

"I'd assume the President is reconsidering the proposed stop-over in Korea," Mansfield said.

1st Showdown on Big Trade Was a Flop

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The first showdown in the Rocky Colavito-Harvey Kuenn swap was a flop, but another off-season trade pulled by Cleveland's Frank Lane paid a quick return for the Chicago White Sox.

Minnie Minoso, the outfielder who has spent his major league career shifting between Cleveland and Chicago, drove in six runs, walloped a grand-slam and broke a ninth-inning tie with a second homer as the White Sox opened defense of the American League flag by beating Kansas City 10-9 Tuesday.

Colavito, the Cleveland favorite traded to Detroit Sunday for Kuenn, was 0-for-6, and Kuenn pulled a leg muscle as the Tigers defeated the Indians 4-2 in 15 innings. The New York Yankees, gunning for a come-back, ripped Boston 8-4, and Baltimore ended Washington's stay in first place after 24 hours with a 3-2 victory over the Senators as the AL completed its late season opening.

In the National League, Los Angeles started the season's second week in first place, jarring San Francisco loose from a share of the lead with a 4-0 decision. Philadelphia defeated Pittsburgh 4-3, and the St. Louis Cardinals won their first, beating the Chicago Cubs 5-2 in the only other games scheduled.

The AL drew 162,336 for Tuesday's games and the largest crowd, 52,756, showed up at Cleveland, where Injun fans turned out to see what the Golden Boy would do to the Indians in a Tiger uniform. Colavito, who shared last year's homer title in the AL with 42, struck out four times and hit into a doubleplay.

Kuenn, the 1959 AL bat champ (.353), was 2-for-7, but didn't figure in the scoring. He was injured on a fielding play, then suffered further damage running to first and chasing a fly. He'll miss today's game and maybe more.

Detroit finally put it away on Al Kaline's two-run single off Bobby Tiefenauer, the Tribe's fifth pitcher. Jim Grant, No. 3 in the procession, was the loser after starter Gary Bell and the Tigers' Frank Lary had carried a shutout duel through 10 innings.

Both clubs scored in the 11th on two-run pinch singles—Niel Christley delivering for Detroit and Jim Piersall for the Indians. Pete Burnside won it in relief.

Ingo Feels He Is Better Than Ever

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP)—Floyd Patterson felt better set his sights high if he figures on regaining the world heavyweight crown from Sweden's Ingemar Johansson at the Polo Grounds, June 20.

Ingo says he's better than ever. "I'm much better now than when I came here the last time," said the handsome, dimple-chinned Swede today. "My right hand comes faster and faster. But it's not only my right hand. My left hand comes faster, too."

It was the "thunder and lightning" right hand that started Patterson tottering from his throne last June 28. Before it was all over Johansson floored the New Yorker seven times. Referee Ruby Goldstein stopped the slaughter at 2:03 of the third round.

It took a couple of hours longer Tuesday to get Johansson to agree to shift the return bout contract-signing date from Wednesday to Thursday.

Johansson arrived by plane from Geneva, Switzerland, ready to sign official contracts on Wednesday for the return bout. The State Athletic Commission, saying it wanted more time to inspect the contracts, announced the signing for 10 a.m. Thursday.

"Oh, no," said the very obviously perturbed Ingo Tuesday. "We sign on Wednesday. I've got to be back in Switzerland on Wednesday night."

But, after several huddles with advisor Edwin Ahlquist and Roy Cohn, counsel for the promoting Feature Sports, Inc., Ingo reluctantly agreed to holding the ceremony on Thursday.

Turnback on Collection Basis Talked

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A turnback arrangement which would reward cities on a basis of money derived from sales tax collections was proposed today.

The idea was advanced in a report to the boards of the Arkansas State Chamber of Commerce and its affiliate, Associated Industries of Arkansas, Inc.

W. M. Shepherd, vice president of Arkansas Power & Light Co. and chairman of a study committee, presented the report at the annual spring meeting of the two bodies.

The committee noted that the present turnback system allocates about $2,310,000 to cities from general fund revenues. Under the proposal, a portion of the state's total sales tax revenues would be divided among cities according to the volume of retail trade.

The committee suggested a 4 per cent return.

This would restore to the cities a revenue source that would permit them to keep abreast of growth and municipal service demands, the report said.

Several other reformations were suggested, including a proposal for a more equitable distribution of highway user tax revenues among

THE STORY: Although Mark Holmes' death in a car crash on an icy road was accidental, his widow Rose cannot forgive Mark's business partner Pete Jackson who was driving the car. Rose is having difficulty in adjusting her life since Mark's death. Karen Jackson is Pete's wife.

CHAPTER XV

Just before Rose took Debbie to Virginia, Karen came over one afternoon. She had telephoned first. They sat on the terrace and this time, Rose made a drink. She assured herself that she wasn't disregarding Pam's warning, she really didn't need it just because Karen was coming.

"Where's Debbie?"
"There's something going on at school — graduation's imminent. She'll be in before dinner. Would you stay?"

"I'd be a nuisance."

"No, we have flexible meals."

"I'd like to. Pete won't be home," Karen glanced up, beautiful and elegant and Rose forced herself to look at her, really look. People were a matter of indifference to her; she knew many, liked most and was fond of a few, but except for the children, she let her comprehension and interest slide over them like a feather duster. In recent months only Pam had, a little, reached her.

Karen looks so different, she thought.

Bluff came galloping up from the woods; he was full of burrs, twigs and enthusiasm. He bowed politely to Karen and stamped happily around Rose.

Karen asked abruptly, "Did Mark tell you I went to see him shortly before the accident?"

"If it was a personal matter he wouldn't tell me or anyone, Karen."

Karen said slowly, "I went to see him because I was unhappy. I wanted a divorce, which Pete had refused. I thought maybe Mark could help."

"Surely, you didn't expect Mark to—"

"Oh, no. I just wanted his advice. Pete told me—but not until recently—that a secretary—Mollie—saw me go into Mark's office. Pete was questioning Mark at the time of the accident."

Rose thought: They were talking about Karen; maybe Pete was angry; surely he was angry. Perhaps he took his eyes from the cities through annual population estimates.

road?
Karen went on, "Mark was understanding, of course. He always understood people. But the advice he gave me was routine; see your doctor, see your clergyman—I haven't been to a church in years—try to work it out, talk things over with Pete."

Rose asked with an effort, "Did you?"

"Not then; and, of course, not after the accident—not until a little while ago. I'm still unhappy, and he still won't give me a divorce. Maybe he grew to depend on me a little after the pain and shock... that could contribute. We've been more peaceful, I mean we don't quarrel continually. I think Mark's death was the worst blow Pete's ever experienced, quite apart from his own involvement. You realize he lives with guilt, don't you?"

"No. He was legally absolved," Rose said steadily.

"But you haven't absolved him. And he hasn't forgiven himself. He had the most frightful nightmares in the hospital, they told me—and after he came home. He still has them, though not as frequently. I'd hear him cry out and go into his room; after a while, he said he thought he'd move back into mine. He was afraid to be alone."

"I'm sorry," Rose said automatically, and found to her astonishment that for a second, at least, she was sorry and could look at Pete, his nightmare and his guilt objectively.

Karen said, "You'd think all this would make a difference in my attitude. The happy ending. It hasn't. Not even Mark—and certainly not Dave—could understand the way Pete's mind works, even though Mark and Dave were Pete's partners. This present need has nothing to do with me as an individual. I'm the only one he can hold on to. He'll get over that, I suppose, but even if he does, he wouldn't let me go. What is he, he keeps. He used to say, he would never risk a scandal—as if a quiet divorce meant professional failure. So I planned to leave him, divorce or not, and just go away when I couldn't take it any longer."

"You've stayed so far."

Karen put the toe of her sandal on Bluff's burnished back. She said, "I suppose because he needs me. Why, isn't of consequence. He never needed me before. Oh, he was in love with me once, but that's a different need. In love, but not loving."

"I know," Rose said. She thought: Thank God, Mark and I knew the difference; we knew the being in love and the loving; we recognized more than one need.

"What's the matter?" Karen asked sharply.

"Nothing—why?"

"You turned white."

"The comparison doesn't hold any more, what with all the pastels. I feel fine. Must be my age creeping up."

That night, after Rose was in bed, thinking over the afternoon,

Just Lightning Bugs

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Coast Guard received a call to investigate an eerie green light several feet above the Mississippi River and moving downstream.

Out went a 40-footer with a full crew. The boat caught up with the green glow early Monday, 14 miles south of New Orleans.

It was a swarm of lightning bugs.

she remembered what Karen had said: "You turned white."

What made me do that? What was I thinking about?

Then she remembered; she had thought: "Thank God."

Perhaps it was an automatic reaction, for these two worlds come to mind or are spoken aloud by millions of people many times every day.

She felt something which was like pain; as if she were dragging herself somewhere, bruising and scraping her flesh, drawing blood; as if, in the tunnel, she had managed to get to her knees. (To Be Continued)

Situation Same as Elsewhere

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—An official said today that the load of patients with non-service connected ailments at Little Rock's Veterans Administration hospital is roughly the same as the national average.

Dr. H. W. Sterling also said the load of such patients at the Veterans Administration hospital in North Little Rock is about half the total number of patients.

Sterling, head of the combined administration for both hospitals, said the Little Rock facility had about 20 per cent service connected cases, indicating the non-service cases to be about 80 per cent.

The national average of non-service connected cases in VA hospitals is 85 per cent.

Sterling gave the information in a letter to the Arkansas Medical Society's House of Delegates from the House of Delegates of a Maryland medical body. The letter suggested that VA hospitals be released to states for possible use as hospitals for tuberculosis patients, since the majority of cases handled were non-service connected.

The Arkansas group endorsed the proposal at a meeting in Pine Bluff Sunday.

Sterling said the Maryland group had advocated a plan to eliminate VA hospitals for several years.

Strange Assignment

LUCEDALE, Miss. (AP)—Lola Jones, 60, admits she gave a setting hen a strange assignment.

The Negro woman pleaded guilty to a charge of possessing illicit whisky and was fined $500.

Two deputies testified they searched her home Saturday and found a gallon of moonshine in half-pint bottles under a setting hen.

A Purse Hooker

DETROIT (AP)—A man carrying a four foot long steel pole with a hook on the end and a companion walked into a Detroit bakery shop Monday.

Mrs. Carmen Eccles, shop owner, wondered what the pole was for but said nothing.

Suddenly the man thrust the pole across a display case, hooked

ABC CIRCULATION AUDIT

WHAT IS ABC?

The Audit Bureau of Circulations, Chicago, by its own definition is: "A co-operative association of advertisers, advertising agencies and publishers for the verification of circulation of newspaper and periodical members in the United States and Canada."

It is controlled by those who buy advertising (manufacturing, merchandising and service companies, and their agencies) rather than those who sell advertising (newspapers and magazines).

COST OF ADVERTISING

Pick up an invoice for newspaper advertising and you will find that you are billed for so many column-inches at so much per inch. That's how it is billed — but that isn't how it is sold.

The price of an inch of advertising is meaningless unless you know what the paper's circulation is. When you know that you know the cost.

The cost of advertising is the cost per inch per thousand circulation. That's the great yardstick by which advertising is bought and sold from coast to coast. The national advertisers call it "the milline" — the cost per line (1/14th of an inch) per million circulation.

Now you know why ABC audits are important. They verify circulation — the factor which is combined with the publisher's charge per inch to establish the advertising cost yardstick.

IT'S CHEAP TODAY

Hope Star's local advertising costs about the same today as in 1929. The rate-per-inch is higher, it is true — but circulation also has increased. Here is the comparison:

	1929	1960
Local "open" rate per inch per thousand	20c	26.2c

And that's a performance we feel deserves a page advertisement all its own.
